THE FREUNDSCHAFTSBUND.

This clob yesterday evening opened the beson with one of its musical and dramatio entertainments. Their favorite hall, bril-Bentiy Himminated and filled with a galaxy of wight fees and fair forms, afforded a coup Post that would have moved a stelc. The overture from "Tancred," by Metz's Band, was eded by a pleasant interlude, "not in the bilin," In the form of a surprise presentation. Mr. Petersen, who had served the bund for over ten years in various capacities, and who by his uniform zeal and intelligent activity had sterially contributed to the prosperity of the club and the entertainment of its members, called to the stage by the secretary, Mr. Charles Siegling, who then and there, in a nest speech, gave Mr. Petersen to understand in what high esseem his efforts were held by chaftsbund, and in the name, and in behalf of the society, presented to him a handsome gold watch as a feeble token of the appreciation of the bund for him. Mr. Petersen was taken perfectly by surprise, and

After this pleasant interruption, the programme proceeded, "Come into the Garden, Mand," a tenor solo, by Mr. R., being next followed by a duett on the plane, by Miss J. and Professor Eckel.

The second part of the entertainment constated in a pleasant comedietta, "Unter'n Regenbogen," ("Under the Rainbow.") The amateur performers acquitted themselves very handsomely, and put the audience in the best of humors. This over, the floor was cleared for dencing, in which pleasant and exhibaratby exercises the balance of the evening was

From this agreeable opening soirce we augur favorably for the series of entertainments that are to follow in the course of the present season.

TRIBUTE

To the Late Hon. Charles M. Furman, T. Kelly and L. B. Lovegreen, Esq. At a regular meeting of the Hibernian Soclety, held on the 8d September, 1872, the followng preamble and resolutions were unanimously

It is but meet and proper that we should paus in our pursuits to dwell upon the lives and the death of those whom when living we honored, and who have left behind them a record of hono and usefulness worthy of being remembered by this society. The Hon. Charles M. Furman had attained so high a position of eminence and worth in the esteem of this community, that there is nothing we could add to swell the already just and full tribute of his praise. His great worth—his usefulness as a high toned and public spirited citizen-his dignified bearing, wide and unostentations benevo lence, and his incorruptible integrity, have been publicly and sufficiently well attested. His generous sympathy for all that concerne the welfare of this society must incur our lasting praise and be cherished in unfailing remembrance May every flower that adorns the chaplet to his memory remain as fresh and as unfading as those we now scatter over his honored tomb.

And now another has been added to our death roli! Our much loved friend and sympathizing companion, T. Kelly, has been summoned to his eternal rest. His years were not as many as the psalmist's, but he lingered and toiled among us long enough to stamp the impression of his many virtues and noble qualities, and draw around him a large circle of loving and devoted friends. With a deep throbbing Irish sympathy that was keenly alive to every exhibition of human misfortune, he was never contented with the bare profession of compassion, but by works manifested the spirit that was in him. He was a noble exile of Erin, overflowing with confidence in his fellow-man. and unstinted in his desire and efforts to aid those in adversity. He has died far away from the land of his birth and the scenes of his childhood; but the new nome of his adoption, to which he was endeared by the most genial attachments, will cherish the ecollection of his many good deeds, which so often brought relief to the distressed.

And yet another is added to the number of those whose loss we mourn ! Lawrence B. Lovegreen, for years a devoted, earnest member of this society, has passed from earth. Gental in temperament, affectionate in disposition, kindly and generous in all his impulses, there was before him the bright prospect of a life of usefulness now forever unfulfilled. There is left to us but the pleasant memories of his companionship with us, and our sorrow for the loss of one, so valued and devoted a friend.

Resolved. That as friends and brethren of Resolved. That as friends and brethren of a common band, we deplore with beding sadness the death of the late Hop. Charles M. Furman, and the late T. Kelly and L. B. Lovegreen, Esqa, as a public loes, and a source of painful bereavement to this society.

Resolved, That in testimony of our respect a page of our Minute Book be dedicated to their memories, and that copies of these resolutions be forwarded to their respective families, and that they be published in the daily papers of the city.

COMMERCIAL NEWS

The Charleston Market.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING THURSDAY, OCT. 17, 1872. THE CROPS .- The special feature of the week as been the cold change, which caused ice to form in exposed localities within a few miles of Charleston. This puts an end to any further levelopment of the plant, and fixes the limit of the crop. The period has been dry and favorable for field work.

THE RECEIPTS .- The arrivals at the cotton ports for the week, up to Friday last, were $7,288 bales, against 74,146 bales the week before, and 64,697 pales for the corresponding period the year previous. At New Orleans the arrivals were 24,424 bales, in contrast with 11,650 bales for the week last year. The total receipts at the cotton ports from September 1st, 1872, up to the latest dates were 388,538 bales, against 236,798 bales the previous year, sucwing an increase of 151,510 bales.
